

FILL IN THE BLANKS

Choose the correct word or words from the chart and write them in the blanks.

1. In the early 1900's, many people were concerned about the bad effects of alcohol consumption and wanted _____, outlawing all forms of alcohol.
2. Others believed that the problem with alcohol drinking could be solved by _____ or moderation.
3. Passed in 1917, the _____ _____ banned the manufacture, sale, and distribution of alcoholic beverages in the United States.
4. After the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia occurred, many Americans were suspicious that people called _____ were plotting a revolution to destroy the U.S. government. This widespread fear was known as the _____ _____.
5. In the long term struggle of securing the right of women to vote, many women from across the U.S. became active in the promotion of the _____ movement.
6. After many protests, demonstrations, and heated debates, the _____ _____ was passed in August 1920, guaranteeing women the right to vote.

temperance suffrage

prohibition

Eighteenth Amendment

Nineteenth Amendment

Red Scare

communists

Under each of the headings, write two facts that you learned about each of these famous men from the Jazz Age.

Louis Armstrong

Duke Ellington

George Gershwin

Langston Hughes
